

2010 CHICK-FIL-A BOWL, FIELD COMPETITION, AND PARADE

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28TH THROUGH FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31ST, 2010

GEORGIA DOME – ATLANTA, GEORGIA

Pending the RCS Board approval in June, the RHS “Marching Hundred” has accepted an invitation to participate in this year’s 2010 Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Performance activities include the Chick-Fil-A Bowl “Game Day Parade” through downtown Atlanta for some 100,000 spectators, the Marching Band Field Competition in the Georgia Dome, and the Pregame/Halftime Shows for the game itself. The bowl game features a 2,000-member “Mass Band” performance with students from all over the country. The halftime festivities will be performed for some 74,000 in the Georgia Dome, “Where the Weather is Always Perfect”, and are televised on ESPN New Year’s Eve at 7:00pm.

Because this includes a field show competition, these performances are required and are considered part of the “Marching Hundred” fall performance schedule. (Any circumstances will be dealt with on an individual basis.) We would like all of the “Marching Hundred” to represent our school, community and State!

The bus and final trip cost are still in the planning stages, but the overall trip should run in the $400+ to $500+/- range for quad occupancy. This price will depend on what extra activities are added to our package. We will need to make a trip deposit in June; therefore I have enclosed a trip payment plan to help you prepare for the next seven months. Due to the close proximity of Atlanta, the trip is less expensive than the Philadelphia or Orlando venues. Also, chaperone space will be limited for this trip; therefore, we will follow our normal chaperone protocol. A trip itinerary draft will follow as soon as it is finalized. Students will return to campus late Dec. 31st.
